

Connections | September 2022

Managing your personal wealth isn't just about the dollars and cents. It's about connecting with what matters to you. Across all generations from life changes through life stages, Mesirow is here to help. That's why every quarter we write content on topics that we hope are relevant and insightful for you.

Retirement Lifestyle

Your life in retirement has the potential to exceed the life of your career. Think about that. That's very different than the generations before us. Having a plan—both a financial plan and a plan for how you plan to spend the next 30+ years—has never been more important. People with a plan are, not surprisingly, significantly more satisfied in retirement.
