Three tips to plan for the 2026 "sunset" of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) was signed into law on December 22, 2017. This legislation went into effect in 2018 and it impacted nearly every part of the tax code. However, one of its most unique features is its "sunset" in 2026, at which point most of the changes to the tax rules revert to their 2017 levels. Although 2026 is still more than two years away, there are a few strategies that you can use now to take advantage of the current rules before they lapse.

Financial and lifestyle changes - Realities facing younger generations

Members of the Silent Generation, Baby Boomers and some of Generation X may now reflect on their life course and say "back in my day" when sharing financial wisdom with their family's youth. However, many people may not be aware of how much things have changed, thereby presenting a barrier to achieving common goals such as education, housing and having a family. Individuals in Generations Y (Millennials) and Z may be hit harder financially than those before them. Also, lifestyle goals and other accomplishments may take longer as individuals need more time to establish themselves. This article provides a few reasons why.
